Small Group Questions:

Thinking about this week's teaching, was there a particular point, verse, or comment that caught your attention, challenged you, or raised a question?

How can we be unified by our foundation in Christ, even in the midst of conflict within the church?

Paul demonstrates confidence in his role without demanding greater authority than other teachers in the church. Why do you think he is so willing to lay aside his authority?

How do you see this building analogy pointing out the dangers of worldly wisdom?

Have you ever been tempted to be a "fruit inspector"? How does that posture fail to fulfill Ephesians 2:10?

How does verse 15 change your perspective on this passage?
